

BBYO's Summer Experiences have always provided Jewish teens like you with a space to explore your leadership style, your Jewish identity, and your role as a global citizen. Now, more than ever, teens feel a growing need for these environments—to build relationships, to instill a sense of purpose, and to learn how to mobilize and take action.

With that in mind, we just launched a series of new digital summer programs. These experiences reflect the best of BBYO, with an emphasis on growing crucial skills and forming tight-knit friendships. Best of all, with lots of options for content and scheduling, these programs are accessible to teens around the world with something for everyone.
